HIS STUBBLE CAME BACK, HIS CHARM WENT.

We once knew a red-headed fellow with a stiff beard that only shaved once a month. He had a sorry razor. On the first he would lather up and scrape off a vermillion stubble. For two or three days he was a pretty good looking fellow but for the balance of the month he was off the market. His stubble came back, his charm went.

MORAL:—Get a razor that is a pleasure to shave with and shave often.

Our razors are sold on trial and guaranteed to shave easy and safely in every way, if they don't bring them back.

At the Colonial.
There are two great pictures on at the Colonial today, both feature subjects. "A Brother's Devotion" is a touching heart story and "The Legion of Honor" is a great French war picture of the time of Napoleon the Great. They are both especially fine class pictures and will prove exceedingly interesting. There are two well illustrated songs and the whole program is one of unusual merit.

At the Airdome.
A good crowd was out last night to see the Spooner Dramatic company in "On the Rio Grande," a stirring western story of the Rio Grande country. It was well acted and received generous applause. Tonight the offering is a great English comedy "Castro." This is a delightful breezy comedy and out of the ordinary in plot and story and is one of the best plays this company presents. They have an excellent line of bills and are changing the attractions each night so that there is always something new. The specialties are also changed each night and are a feature of the program.
